

Career and Technical Education (CTE)

Juniors and seniors earn industry certifications and dual credits from IVY Tech while gaining real world experience.

IMPACT Institute Students spend the morning half of the day attending IMPACT Institute, then return back to Fremont High School to complete academic graduation requirements in the afternoon for a full school year . Explore and apply for the 14 career programs offered at IMPACT Institute by visiting their website at <https://www.impactinstitute.net/high-school>

Fremont High School Manufacturing Academy

ABOUT THE MANUFACTURING ACADEMY

Invest Steuben and Ivy Tech Community College's high school Manufacturing Academy is open to juniors or seniors. You will experience hands-on training and prepare to earn industry recognized certifications and college credit before graduating high school!

PROGRAM BENEFITS

Receive an overview of the manufacturing industry.

Connect and visit each industry sponsor company, including the Northeast Indiana FAME Chapter, for a paid training experience.

Earn or prepare for industry-recognized certifications.

Successful program completion will lead to work-based learning opportunities.

Students attend Fremont High School in the morning and the Manufacturing Academy in the afternoon for one semester.

Follow this link to more information and apply.

<https://steubenedc.com/workforce-development/pre-manufacturing-academy>